*In-Person!****

Transitions Group

The transition group is geared toward people still adjusting to loss after a year or more, who are now feeling “stuck” and in need of additional support in re-establishing personal contacts, connections, and a sense of purpose in life. The focus is on life rather than death, positive thinking, and self-determined action rather than “cure”.

It will be part education, part support, and will include both tears and laughter. It is free and open to the public.

This group will meet on Fridays from 3-4:30 at the Center at Belvedere in C'ville for 8 (to 10) weeks beginning January 28th, 2022 and facilitated by a licensed professional.

Pre-registration is required for all groups.

Winter Blues Workshop

The winter season can be a joyful time and yet it can also bring down our spirits with dreary days and long, dark and cold nights. Many of us experience feelings of stress, fatigue, confinement, boredom and a general sense of depression during this time of year, even when we are not dealing with grief and COVID-19 restrictions. In order to help address these concerns, Hospice of the Piedmont is offering at no charge a “Winter Blues Workshop” on Monday, January 10th from 3:00-4:00pm. The facilitators of this online workshop will share ideas and positive steps to help us take care of ourselves mentally, physically and spiritually, especially during the winter season.

Each person's grief is an individual as a snowflake. ~ David Kessler
